

Beginning December 1, 2026, the monthly sewer rate will change from $45 to $65. This adjustment will help Eagle Sewer District continue providing reliable wastewater service while maintaining and improving our system, addressing increased treatment costs from the City of Boise, and investing in infrastructure for Class A irrigation water. These improvements help protect public health and the environment while preparing our system for the future. More information is on our website at eaglesewer.org.